A LAW AT MIDNIGHT.

No Chance of a Veto of the New Tariff Bill.

Goods in Bond Under McKinley Law to Come in Free.

Carlie Telegraphs Instructions to Various Customs Officers.

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Aug. 27.—The tariff bill, which has been in the custody of the Treasury Department since shortly after it was sent to the President, was returned to the White House this morning.

It is stated authoritatively that a veto is out of the question.

The bill will become a law at 12 o'clock to-night, and Secretary Carlie this afternoon will issue instructions to collectors of customs throughout the country directing them to carry out the provisions of the new act.

Secretary Carlie has decided and will instruct Customs collectors that goods placed in bonded warehouses under the McKinley law shall be free of duty under the new tariff act and be entitled to free entry, and need not be exported and reimported in order to get the benefit of the new act.

It is of special interest to the wool trade, as a large amount of wool has been stored now in bonded warehouses.

In this, as in all other mooted questions, the Secretary will follow the intent of Congress and let aggrieved parties appeal to the courts if they care to contest on technical grounds.

In accordance with this determination he undoubtedly will hold that dimensions of dutiable goods notwithstanding the new punctuation of the free list.

The Secretary to-day sent the following telegram to the collectors at all ports of the United States:

"Vessels with cargo not discharged nor entered for consumption may be made warehouse stores temporarily for such goods as shall be entered to-day in bond."

LONDON, Aug. 27.—Advices that have reached here from China show that the maltreatment of English women missionaries in Canton was due to the posing of placards accusing foreigners of a desire to poison all the Chinese to revenge the loss of friends by the plague in Hong Kong. The placards said:

"Chinese female convicts and foreign devils-men, on the pretext of curing the plague, have spread broadcast poisonous scent-bags. The Chinese must not be deceived by them."
